Ohio Arts Council's Riffe Gallery Presents
Material Pulses: 8 Viewpoints

Eight Artists Investigate Traditional and Experimental Quilt-Making

Columbus, Ohio—The Ohio Arts Council’s Riffe Gallery will present Material Pulses: 8 Viewpoints from May 12–July 16, 2016. Nancy Crow, an internationally recognized quilt-maker and the co-founder of Quilt Surface Design Symposium and Quilt National, will curate the exhibition of quilts and textiles.

“Material Pulses: 8 Viewpoints is the culmination of my mission to bring back the majesty, strength, and energy of textile works, particularly large quilts,” Crow said.

Though curated by Ohio-born Crow, the exhibition features eight international artists—from the Midwest to the Southwest, Canada to the United Kingdom (UK). These artists investigate color, pattern, and size through traditional and experimental quilt-making applications.
